Here I stand, before you
With my heart in my hand
With love and devotion
I'm at your command
Folks say you love another
But don't explain
If you need me, just call me
And I'll understand
Could love you, my darling
It's oh, so fine
Every hour and each day
You're on my mind
They say you love another
But don't be ashamed
If you need me, just call me
And I'll understand
Oh-oh, all know, in every game
Somebody's gotta lose each hand
I loved you, and lost you
So don't explain
But there's one thing, my darling

I ask of you

Just love your new lover

As I loved you

'Cause here in my heart

You'll always remain

If you need me, just call me

And I'll understand

I know, I know

I'll understand

Woah, woah, woah

I'll understand

Mmmm, mmmm, mmmm...
