I knew from the first time you said hello, that you were special (special),
We come from two different worlds' girl I know (I know), but just cuz I'm hood, That don't mean that I'm out here trying to get with every girl
I'm just looking for that someone who I could give the world
Please don't judge me baby, look in to my eyes
I ain't playing with you (nooo)
Girl I got to get you.

Baby your heart is safe with me, (oh yes it is) Let me show you what love suppose to be,
Girl I wanna to give you, all of this street love
I wanna give it, all of this street love baby
Your heart is safe with me
Take all of my street love

Baby I don't wanna to have to let go (let go), just let me hold you (hold you)
Your homies say that im no good im ghetto (ghetto)
but just cuz im hood, it don't mean that im out here trying to get with every girl
I'm just looking for the someone who I could give the
please don't judge me baby look in to my eyes
I ain't playing with you, noooo girl I got to getch oooo

Baby your heart is safe with me (baby your heart is safe with me),
let me show you what love's suppose to be (I want to show you love, I want to show you love), girl I want to give you all of this street love (every little bit of it) all of this street love, (baby your heart) baby your heart is safe with me (with me, with me)
take all of my street love

Baby don't you hold back don't you want to give it
Baby don't you hold back don't you want to give it

[Breakdown:]

Just want to give you all my love

This is how I feel about you

Even though we come from two different worlds

There's something real about you

Girl, don't be scared to follow your heart

I'll never ever hurt you, you deserve me

[Chorus 2X]

Baby your heart is safe with, let me show you what love suppose to be

(I girl I just wanna give you), girl I want to give you all of this street love

(every little bit of it) all of this street love baby your heart is safe with me

take all of my street love
