smack the paparazzi (repeats)

smack the paparazzi
he's camera drops it the look on his face like he can't believe he clocked me stop being so cocky when you are trying to stop me just take take the chew what you can and don't try to mock me antagonism talking to much lipstick you will think you want me to slap you like a bitch quick all up in my business when i am trying to get down in the back seat of my .. i am trying to hit this round down down july brown the butty was popping out i am stroking like clowns when the paparazzi are popping out

he went click click click with his cannon i went with my hands on

oh now they had it a gain i .. my house with ...
.. every day of every week even in my window try to stub me .. photos they are taking me to the highest bidder ...oh yeah son you better run cause i got the burner you shot me i shut at you this time is murder
