The time has come

Certain death, one last breath
It's taking you so suddenly
Wise is that, believe me
'Cause soon in vain, will out your company

Do you see, leaves me troubled
In fact you've doubled on a pain
But it's plain to see you're not to blame
I feel the sensation of love when you're near me, dee

We plunged into the universe

What is this game we're playing
Where do the pieces go
Will I get out of jail, well I just gotta know

Your voice haunts me at twice the normal speed
Who knows where this might lead
I said goodbye today, I know it's not for good
Full steam ahead I'll see you on the other side

You'll shoot me down, you'll hold my hand
And welcome me to your new land
This is for battle

What is this game we're playing
Where do the pieces go
Will I get out of jail, well I just gotta know

Never been burnt, never was a time to burn
Never been burnt, never was a time to burn
Never been burnt, never was a time to burn
Never been burnt, never was a time to burn

Never been burnt, never was a time to burn
Never been burnt, never was a time to burn
Never been burnt, never was a time to burn
Never been burnt, never was a time to burn

Never been burnt, never was a time to burn

Never been burnt, never was a time to burn
Never been burnt, never was a time to burn
Straight, I love me a freak

Oh, your majesty what a travesty
It is to be alive
Oh, your majesty what a travesty
It is to be alive

It is to be alive
It is to be alive
It is to be alive
