We always saved the best for last
Till nothing was left
That day we spent out by the lake
I'll never regret
You made me feel like I was tough
Like I was the best
A picture face down on the bar
I'll never forget
A thrift shop memory
And all the books you stole from me

Of all the things we barely made
The life we lost, the way we gave
The best of all the times I spent with you
I hope you're happy too

That summer night we told ourselves
We'd always be true
We watched the sun erase the moon
And turn into blue

Waiting for some things to change
Or hoping that they'd stay the same

Of all the things we barely made

The life we lost, the way we gave
The best of all the times I spent with you
I hope you're happy too

What was it we forgot to say?
Getting good at keeping our eyes closed
And I guess I lost my innocence that day
When you told me we'd be friends
But you're still so much of all I am

Of all the things we barely made
The life we lost, the way we gave
The best of all the times I spent with you
I hope you're happy too

To all the things we barely made
The life we lost, the way we gave
The best of all the times I spent with you
I hope you're happy too
Happy too, happy too, happy too

We always saved the best for last
