Everybody's asking
When do you get home
I don't know the answer
All I really know
Is that you're living in London
With an ex-boyfriend
On some kind of break from
This relationship
Pre-Chorus
I know you're having The greatest time
So you go right ahead and clear your mind
Chorus
Hey, I don't want you thinking I'm concerned
So promise you'll remember to return
V2
Everybody's asking
When did you last call
I can never answer
The phones off the hook
So daytime television
Is a substitute
For all the conversations
I think we both knew
Pre-Chorus
Might have taken place if you had stayed
With titles like please Ricki make her stay
Rpt Chorus
