On the advise of my friends
I took some time to get away
Over the oceans to forget her
And think a few days

How could I have known
How fast her memory would fade
But I got caught in the magic
Of a night so far away

Could be a light of the Asian Moon?
Could be a song an old Asian Tune?
Lovely dark haired ladies and the words they say
A late night sail on a moonlit bay
Could be the stars in the Asian Sky
That got me flying and feelin' so high?
I never thought the hurt would heal so soon
Must be the light of the Asian Moon

That old moon cleared my mind
'Bout what's important to me

Now I want to live and love
And laugh that's all I need

Could be a light of the Asian Moon?
Could be a song an old Asian Tune?
Lovely dark haired ladies and the words they say
A late night sail on a moonlit bay (Save me, save me)
Could be the stars in the Asian Sky (Stars)
That got me flying and feelin' so high? (Stars in the sky)
I never thought the hurt would heal so soon
Must be the light of the Asian Moon

Could be a light of the Asian Moon? (Light)
Could be a song an old Asian Tune? (Could be a song)
Ooh, words they say
Save me, save me
(FADE)
