Take the things you want, but leave everything you need.
But you better take heed, you won't get to see me bleed.
I can always change, but you'll always be the same.
It's such a crying shame, But someone should take the blame.

And if you go home with another tough guy,
I don't want to hear you cry, how you can't look him in the eye.
And if you go home with another tough guy,
I don't want to hear you cry, I won't help you say goodbye.
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i can help you out with that
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i
can help you out with that I know i'm being mean and i know i'll play it rough And i know you've had it tough, but i think i've had enough
I was unaware of you ever playing fair, and i really don't care
How's the weatrherr down there

And if you go home with another tough guy,
I don't want to hear you cry, how you can't look him in the eye.
And if you go home with another tough guy,
I don't want to hear you cry, there's no more of you and I
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i
can help you out with that
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i
can help you out with that
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i
can help you out with that
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i
can help you out with that

And if you go home with another tough guy, another tough guy who's just a little too high And if you go home with another tough guy, i don't wanna hear you cry there's no more of you and i.

I'm up in the air, how's the weather down there?
I don't want to play fair, and i really don't care
I'm up in the air, how's the weather down there
I really don't care, i really don't care

can help you out with that(repeat till end)
