We're walking through an old town
Of damaged streets and buildings
And we're not so far away
From the moment that we'll cross

I know your love was fake
Because it doesn't seem to be that
The roads I'm turning on
Belong to you and me

You hide me in your memories
It's just a fatal fantasy
Days and nights are much too long
And dreams won't last forever long

Won't you leave me on my own
Before I crash and burn
Because the circles in my dreams
Are the crossroads of the past

I know your love was fake
And creeping hearts won't stay alive
The roads we're crawling in Aren't meant for me

You hide me in your memories
It's just a fatal fantasy
Days and nights are much too long
And dreams won't last forever long

Let me be your fantasy
Let me play in your dreams
Let it be our destiny

You hide me in your memories
It's just a fatal fantasy
Days and nights are much too long
And dreams won't last forever long
