"Alone Together"

And when the day is gone, the day is gone
And when it's said and done, said and done
We are all alone together

You will all stand above me six feet
To bury pieces of me underneath
Make me into the earth again
Cut your tongues out before you speak
Of what you have seen
Broken pieces of me caught between
These dirty sheets

I want you to take my hand
And lead me to the promised land
I want you to take my hand
And lead me to the promised land
If there is such a thing

And when the day is gone, the day is gone
And when it's said and done, said and done
We are all alone together
