As we look for shiny things
I know that we will try to bring the sun
But when it rains it pours
And I hope I don't have to see anyone
'Cuz you know I can get crazy
I say
"Fuck it all. Let's go have some fun"
Paint the town red
Kill them all dead
And one by one
They'll soon be gone

And we cry
"if we ever make it out alive
If we ever make it out alive
This will be the last time"

Once again you
Wish that you
Could find the words to speak your mind
I was messed up
On the top of
And wish that I could press rewind
'Cuz it's a rat's nest
Of empty beds
And hollow eyes
In yellow light
I've got marker on my face
On my hands
And on my backside

And I write
"if I ever make it out alive
If I ever make it out alive
This will be the last time"

The morning comes
With cigarettes
And pillow talk
Of days gone by
And if these walls could speak about
The things they saw

When I was getting high
They'd say
"Sorry son, your life's a wreck.
Get off your ass and make things right
'Cuz it's your fault you're in this mess
In the first place
And it's time to fight"

And they cry
"if you ever make it out alive
If you ever make it out alive
If you ever make it out alive
If you ever make it out alive
Let it be the last time.
Let it be the last time.
Let it be the last time."
