Stare
A million miles from here
It's evident
That I'm too scared
To try and forget of the past and move ahead
I'll try again

Scared
Trying hard just to forget
And I'll placate thought with self-distress
Pleading cases to courts with deafened ears
Over again

Couple stiff drinks, couple beers
And I'll forget you're not here
And oh, clear your taste out
Couple stiff drinks, couple beers
And I'll forget you're not here
And oh, clear your taste out
No

There
You walked away from here
Wait just one moment, I swear
I'll make some sense of this tonight
Just one more time
I'll sit alone

Couple stiff drinks, couple beers
And I'll forget you're not here
And oh, clear your taste out
Couple stiff drinks, couple beers
And I'll forget you're not here
And oh, clear your taste out

Honestly
The things I hear are wasted words
Cause I just don't care
You make things unfold
Cause you can't let go
No, you can't let go

I'll take a ride and leave you there
You're out of sight and out of mind, dear
I'll make these memories all fade

Couple stiff drinks, couple beers
And I'll forget you're not here
And oh, clear your taste out
Couple stiff drinks, couple beers
And I'll forget you're not here
And oh, clear your taste out

Say goodbye to all these years
And they'll become all you have left here
I'll be on the road while you're stuck at home
You're stuck at home

I'll take a ride and leave you there
You're out of sight and out of mind, dear
Oh no, this gets old now
I'll just let go, I'll just let go
