Feelings unknown
Space smiles wide on your end
I can't feel right
Salt dragging on my insides
Please steal these eyes
No longer watching, say goodbye

I'll stay here alone
This direction is unknown
I'll stay (I'll stay) here alone
Misdirection

Stare at the sky
I wonder where your eyes are
I can't feel right
Salt dragging on my insides
Please steal these eyes
No longer watching, say goodnight

I'll stay here alone
This direction is unknown
I'll stay (I'll stay) here alone
Misdirection
Misdirection

As we separate our lives
Symbolic as the sunrise
As it gets consumed by night
It hasn't been the same since missing both our eyes

Yeah, yeah, yeah

I'll stay here alone
This direction is unknown
I'll stay (I'll stay) here alone
Misdirection
Misdirection
