I need a rich girl with everything
Except fake tits and a wedding ring
Cuz the best things in life have never been free
So set me up with chick on the jet set scene
Hey rich girl, u had money since birth
I could supplement myself with your wealth and worth
Cuz u don't even care when I dig in your purse
Ya a rich girl one that loves to splurge
And you know I've learned to give her what she deserves
So what's yours is mine but what mine aint yours
So dinners on you and I'll buy desert
What? are your feelins hurt?

I need a rich girl
That's all I need
I need a rich girl
That's all I need
I need a rich girl
That's all I need
I need a rich girl
That's all I ever need

I need a rich girl
Abercrombie and fitch girl
I don't care if you pop a couple of those pills girl
And you know that I'm always down to chill girl
But I'm still up to go as far you will girl
My rich girl would let me borrow her jet
And use her daddys check book to erase my debt
Take her to the mall and I wont regret
Cuz when the black cards out my girl loves to spend
With my rich girl everyday just like christmas
She even buys me the gifts that we rent on my wishlist
So rich girl, I'm in love I wanna say this Can you pay for the movie? I'm broke as shit

I need a rich girl
That's all I need
I need a rich girl
That's all I need

I need a rich girl
That's all I need
I need a rich girl
That's all I ever need

Hey rich girl, can you buy me some toys?
And can I go thru your phonebook and delete the boys
And when we make love don't make too much noise
Cuz I'd hate to have you lose that beautiful voice
The way I see it, we were meant to meet
How you sweet talked me, and spent a G on drinks
And the cheap talk stinks, so my phone bill reaks
One blackberry no you got 3
Hey rich girl I know you like sex on the beach
And wont mind gettin sand in ya millionaire cheeks
'So when you spot me hand and hand with a rich mans offspring
Then you'll understand why my wallets not on me

I need a rich girl
That's all I need
I need a rich girl
That's all I need
I need a rich girl
That's all I need
I need a rich girl
That's all I ever need
