Take a picture Matter of fact take it with ya By the time the Polaroid develops I'll be cross the river Floatin, sun soakin the most in I can't call a day a day without roastin That's why I never fix it when it's broken, Single on the book, like 7-E I'm always open Come and try me, and sample the same I need a summer girl not another ball n chain I need a lover girl, yeah one and the same We can cuddle girl, but it has to remain No strings attached cuz I'm not like that I'd always trade a sure thing in for a brand new catch Now bring it back And drop the beat one time When school gets out you only get one line "Hey it's Loggy, I'm calling just to set myself free But I promise one thing, it's not you it's me"

If you don't want me, then you can just leave There's plenty other fish in the sea I'll be fine on my own, just as long as you're gone I knew you weren't the one all along

Did you feel that? I swear I'm so lifted I'm sitting here in park and your gears just shifted I'm tryin to kick it girl, your gettin in my way And I can't look at other women with you all up in my face

So step aside, I know we had a good ride Full of pep spice, wine, and late Friday nights And it's crazy, when the seasons get to changing It seems like I'm the only one who cancels all arrangements

Previous engagements, serious exchanges I throw em all a way for some delirious insane chick What leave em looking teary-eyed n dangerous Gotta make it to the morning orange juice n champagne kid When the shades go on You know who made this song When the shades go on

You know who made this song

If you don't want me, then you can just leave There's plenty other fish in the sea I'll be fine on my own, just as long as you're gone I knew you weren't the one all along

Summer just arrived no time for this I need a vacation Relation-SPLIT Summer just arrived no time for this I need a vacation Relation-SPLIT Summer just arrived no time for this I need a vacation Relation-SPLIT Summer just arrived no time for this I need a vacation Relation-SPLIT

If you don't want me, then you can just leave There's plenty other fish in the sea I'll be fine on my own, just as long as you're gone I knew you weren't the one all along
