Look.. secrets..

Secrets are surprise disguise lies that don't appear now but.. it will appear later between me and you girl..

We can never be together (you and i) No matter how hard we try (uh huh) we can never be together no need to cry (this is just a dream..) wipe away the tears (things will never what it seems) from the corner of your eye i'm nobody special baby just another typical guy

-Chorus x2-

We can never be together
No matter how hard we try
We can never be together. no need to cry Wipe away the tears from the corner of your eyes I'm nobody special baby just another typical guy

It's a dream living in black and white Well when i see your here On open light tell me why i'm not satisfied my heart feels like it just died wondering what it would be like if you and i came together tonight at this moment in this life time, show me a common sent revealing your presences, answers to upcome to my newest questions your shadows shows me plenty of clues i'm tryna reach you but i can't touch you can you feel what i feel? i hate imagining so show me that your real if you do then give me a sign and heal this lover that blurry blinds my vision of pain and sorrow i almost gave in but somethings always telling me to wake up and try tomorrow
no matter how much it hurts we can't be together i'm not soft we're not a steel so it's forever you and i can never be together so far in the back of my mind still tryna search and find us that go on and press rewind

-Chorus 2x-

We can never be Together
wipe away the tears from the corner of your eye
i'm nobody special baby just another typical guy

we can never be together you can say forever it's just an imagination threw all of my situations fking with hoes stuck in indentation threw all the trouble i go through you setting me free, the adrenalin rushing at it's maximum speed trouble and worries appear around you and me understanding that, that is the reason why we cannot be your patience is magnificence, don't take me wrong still it's something you and i would kinda take down look,
the reason why i don't want you involved is there enough problems and questions for you and i to solve?
you can say i'm selfish, ignorant and that i don't care gotta understand i took your pain away from your own fears putting you through this would shatter your hope and dreams
you just don't see it right now till it hits your own scene believe me i care it's just that this world is all about survival dealing with denial
it's our own personal issue and trial

Chorus 2x

We can never be Together

Only in deep down dreams i feel your face as i stare off into the lost open space or ratherly pounds of thousands pace concentration gets hard when i'm at work mixed up between dreams and reality, yes it hurts i find myself hiding just so i can feel ya true love, i never achieve it so loneliness still attached to my everyday instinct so many new faces dashing through been searching forever just tryna find the real you ah, imagine you and i at that place, that place that separates pain away from peace in the country field we dash through just ,you and i as we join hands and hands spread your wings and sooth with me to another land over the ocean as we freeze through the breeze these memories will not be put to rest learn to move on and live your life at it's best forward towards another day waking up stunned again damnn, i'm just dreaming away...

Chorus 3x

We can never be Together
i'm nobody special baby just another typical guy yeah...
