My friends call me enemy cos they're a fucking joke They'd better get their act together it's time that they awoke
I'm cast out by my relatives cos they don't want me around
I just sit in a corner and I don't make a sound - Not one word

The walls are closing in on me
I don't know what to do
Please tell me who is who - Tell me who is who - Tell me who is who

Policemen are my friends so why do they always stare Raid our clubs bust out parties condemned for short hair
Teachers are my friends so why do they make me stand In front of a class of gawking fools who'll never understand - They'll never understand

The world around me falls apart
I don't know what to do
who is who
