"To Love Again"

Radio's fine
It helps me forget for a while
I look back and recall
Those days I had with you
Sometimes I need a friend,
Just to make it through
Another day spent without you

Oh You, you gave me all the reason's
To live
My friend's called me
And I just got to let you know
I'm gonna need a friend
Just to make it through
Another day spent without you

And I don't wanna go on pretending
That it's gonna be a happy endin'
If I should love again
Once I've learned to love again
And no... It would never be the same
Without you baby
This pain inside is drivin' me crazy
Coz' it's hard to love again
It's hard to love again...
