I'll never be anybody's hero Or the legend of a story or a saint that's bound for glory, no
And I'll never know what it's like to swim in money Or how it feels not to have to go to work on Monday

I'm a simple man and that's okay
But even a simple man wants to feel this way

Like the king of his castle, like the leader of the pack Like a man that if you left him, you'd just have to have him back
Like a rock that you would lean on when your world gets too rough
Like a man that you would stand beside when he's not so tough
But even if that's not the man you see then just love me, just love me

I'll never write a song that lasts forever Or a book for all the ages but I'm not full of empty pages, no
'Cause I got a soul and I use it for yearnin' With a heart that skips a beat for you and a fire that keeps on burnin'

I'm a simple man, yeah that's okay
But even a simple man wants to feel this way

Like the man that if you left him, you'd just have to have him back
Like the rock that you would lean on when your world
gets too rough
Like the man that you would stand beside when he's not so tough
But even if that's not the man you see then just love
me, just love me

Oh, I'm a simple man, and that's okay But even a simple man wants to be swept away and feel

Like the king of his castle, like the leader of the pack
Like the man that if you left him, you'd just have to have him back
Like the rock that you would lean on when your world
gets too rough
Like a man that you would stand beside when he's not
so tough
But even if that's not the man you see then just love me Just love me, just love me and just love me, oh girl yeah

Love me, it's all I want from you Just love me, girl I got to you, love me Oh just love me, yeah yeah
Just love me, just love me, oh oh, love me
