[Verse One:]

Now I know how Merle Haggard felt when he sang the words mama tried.
And I've lived those teenage Friday nights, the pyramid of cans in the pale moon light. And that Summer Becky broke my heart Alabama sang old flame burnin'. Well I've measured George Strait, a drink of George Jones, my life's been a country song.

[Chorus:]

It's all about fallin' down and gettin' back up, your good times and hard luck. True love and amazing grace, workin' all week for a back ache. Raisin' caine, Friday nights, Sunday church to set it right. They can write it on my stone, my life's been a country song.

[Verse Two:]

Now I know how Paycheck felt when he told his boss he can take his job and shove it. And I've had the girl that made me say
I like it, I love it, I want some more of it. And I'll always remember just where I was when the world stopped turnin'.
Through the good and the bad, the right and the wrong, my life's been a country song.

[Chorus:]

It's all about fallin' down and gettin' back up, your good times and hard luck. True love and amazing grace, workin' all week for a back ache. Raisin' caine, Friday nights, Sunday church to set it right. They can write it on my stone, my life's been a country song.

[Bridge:]

It's been the words when I couldn't find 'em. A friend when I've been alone. It's been the toast to things to remember, the strength for movin on...

[Chorus:]

It's all about fallin' down and gettin' back up, your good times and hard luck. True love and amazing grace, workin' all week for a back ache. Raisin' caine, Friday nights, Sunday church to set it right. They can write it on my stone, my life's been a country song.

Oh, my life's been a country song...
