we knew what we wanted in the beginning cos you had a man and i had a girlfriend the road that we traveled was always shifting and we knew it would lead to a dead end but time after time we're pulling ourselves in we find ourselves in the same situation caught up in a love with no expectations refuses to give us a reason i'm waiting spending time with you

but still she's on my mind and we both know that nothing can change what's happening to us i'm stuck between two types of love

all this loving for nothing what does it mean for us sending roses in dozens don't even mean enough
so one black rose
i've given you a deeper love (black rose)
i've given you a deeper love (black rose)
i've given you a deeper love (black rose) i've given you a deeper love so tell me what you want (what you want) where do we go from here (here) the nights of us loving, kissing and touching do you really want that all to disappear (i think not) so tell me where to go (feels like i'm standing at a fork in the road) should i come to you, even though i got a girlfriend at home i know this isn't far cos we keep on

and we both know that

i've given you a deeper love (black rose)
i've given you a deeper love (black rose)
i've given you a deeper love (black rose) oh i've given you a deeper love black rose, black rose...

i've given you a deeper love (black rose)
i've given you a deeper love (black rose)
i've given you a deeper love (black rose)

black rose, black rose...
