Watching you, watching me, watching them, watching
we, can't you see them?

Watching you, watching me, watching them, watch
your step, can't you say?

Watching you, watching me, watching them, watching
we, can't you see them?

Watching you, watching me, watching them, watch
your step, can't you say?

Don't you see them? Or is it me on my own
Is it my imagination or my paranoid zone?
Is it the world we live in or the land that we roam?
Yeah they're watching, I think they've gone and tapped my phone

Like damn! What am I gonna do - these locks I can't break it

My freedom they will take it - if I run, will I make it?
To somewhere that's far away

Will they find the beach I bathe and the place that I stay?

Gonna find out who got locked, gonna find out who got popped

Gonna find out who and when, gonna find out who got what

Gonna find and get these names, gonna put me in the frame

I need to pack my shit quick if I'm gonna make this plane

- And dustâ€¦like that I'm gone

Ain't gon' stick around for this shit - cos that is long

Am I guilty? No, no way

Where I'm gone? Far, far away

Watching you, watching me, watching them, watching
we, can't you see them?

Watching you, watching me, watching them, watch
your step, can't you say?

Watching you, watching me, watching them, watching
we, can't you see them?

Watching you, watching me, watching them, watch
your step, can't you say?

I ain't gonna tell you that life's alright
Just because I'm on a beach and it's a full moon tonight
I ain't gonna tell you that life's all good If the truth be told - it's not how it should In fact it's bad - I feel the opposite of sad
I feel insane in the brain forward slash fucking mad Am I losing the plot? Am I cream of the crop? Am I bottom of the top?
Is this weed? Or is this rock?
I don't know - I just feel real strange Feel like you're watching me, ain't a damn thing changedâ€¦
For five years, I've felt like Dr. Richard Kimble
Now let me break it down, now let me make this simple,
I'm likeâ€¦
Day after day, month after year
Will this paranoid feeling disappear?
Why are they watching, increasing my fear?
I need to stop these voices whispering in my ear
Day after month after year
Will this paranoid feeling disappear?
Why are they watching increasing my fear?
I need to stop these voices whispering in my ear

They watching you - They watching me They watching us - They watching we Watch the way we live, watch the way we be Yeah they're watching - It's all eyes on me Now can't you see them? They are snakes in the grass Us or them? Now who's gonna last?
All of we are one and we need to see through the masks
I'm paranoid these droids are gonna try and take chargeâ€¦
Of my mission, ain't letting that happen, I put my foot to the floor
Ain't gonna take it no more, you need to watch you step or I'm gonna re-assess, yeah the sky turns red
I feel your eyes burning in the back of my head Ain't gonna let you take that, ain't gonna let you take this Ain't gonna let you take what you want
Or let you take the piss - no way!

Watching you, watching me, watching them, watching
we, can't you see them?
Watching you, watching me, watching them, watch
your step, can't you say?
Watching you, watching me, watching them, watching

we, can't you see them?
Watching you, watching me, watching them, watch
your step, can't you say?
