"Black Or Blue"

there was a girl who flew the world from a lonely shore through southern snow to Heathrow to understand the law

there was a boy who loved noise of the underground he left the coast and overdosed on that London sound he said: "I don't care if you're black or blue me and the stars stay up for you I don't care who's wrong or right and I don't care for the U.K. tonight so stay, stay"

and then one day she moved away from those garden walls

she left some flowers, he smoked for hours she understood the law

I don't care if you're black or blue
me and the stars stay up for you
and I don't care for the U.K. tonight
so stay, stay

There was a girl who flew the world
