All the people in your life
Say you're down
And the strangers in the night
Say you're down
And the loonies on the right
They say you're down and you're down

And the ambulances sigh
That you're down
And the traffic speeding by
Says you're down
And the people in your mind
They say you're down and you're down

Hey, hey, hey you chase the day away
Hey, hey, hey you draw the blinds and blow your mind
away
And there's a sadness in your style
And there's a blankness in your smile

And the people in the park
Say you're down
And the strangers in the dark
Say you're down
And the piss heads in the bars
They say you're down and you're down

And the audiences cry
That you're down
And the ambulances sigh
That you're down
And the boyfriends in your life
They say you're down and you're down

Hey, hey, hey you chase the day away
Hey, hey, hey you draw the blinds and blow your mind
And there's a sadness in your style
And there's a blankness in your smile

Hey, hey, hey you chase the day away
Hey, hey, hey you draw the blinds and blow your mind

And there's a sadness in your style
And there's a madness in your smile
