Come back, you know i miss you
Gotta hold you once again in my life
It's late, it's quiet
A taxi waits at the door
Footsteps, a doorslam
What's going on
It's quarter to four
So many times, so many tears
So many words unspoken
So many doubts, so many fears
So many hearts are broken
'cause i'm lonely and i miss you tonight (come back)
Gotta hold you again in my life (come back)
'cause i'm lonely and i need you tonight (come back)
Gotta hold you again in my life (come back)
The phone keeps ringing
Are you there with your friends
I call back, it's busy
I hang up and try once again
So many times, so many tears
So many words unspoken
So many doubts, so many fears
So many hearts are broken
'cause i'm lonely
