When I go home this summer, I done made up my mind Gonna do some things, I wish, I'd done back once upon a time
Everybody in the whole place, they're gonna know my name
I'll blow in like a hurricane then blow out just the same

Paint scenes on the water-tower
I got the paint an' I got the power
Do everything I wish I'd done back then

Better late than never, they say
Can't let the moment slip away
I'm gonna finally take my chances
When I go home again

Call old Frankie Walker an' ask him if he might Meet me at the drag strip an' he can eat my dust tonight
I'm gonna look up Laura what's her name an' I'll finally make it clear
I studied every square inch of her legs, our junior year

Paint scenes on the water-tower
I got the paint an' I got the power
Do everything I wish I'd done back then

Better late than never, they say
Can't let the moment slip away
I'm gonna finally take my chances
When I go home again

Everybody's got some things they wish they'd said or done
An' I'm gonna do my best to do 'em, every one

Gonna finally tell my Mamma about that Friday night
Didn't trip or fall, I got that shiner in a fight
An' if I get my courage up, I might just spill the beans An' tell her all the details 'bout the night I turned eighteen

Paint scenes on the water-tower
I got the paint, I got the power
Do everything I wish I'd done back then

Better late than never, they say
Can't let the moment slip away
I'm gonna finally take my chances
When I go home again

All right

When I go home again
Oh, it's good to be back home, again
