I must have slept for many years
I fell asleep in the lion's mouth, I didn't mind the danger at all
It didn't do me no harm
I fell in love so easily
I was asleep and the air was calm
I didn't mind the danger at all
And when I woke up it was gone
And I must have slept for many years
Cause I had forgotten how the [something] felt
I didn't mind the danger at all
I must have slept for many years
I fell asleep in the lion's mouth, I didn't mind the danger at all
I hardly see your face now
I've found the way to hide it
Time didn't pay a kindness to me at all
Time didn't show me any kindness at all
I fell asleep in the midst...
It didn't do me no harm
I always walk alone now
I found a way to hide it
Time didn't pay attention to me at all
Time didn't show kindness to me at all
I fell asleep in the lion's mouth
That's how I fell for you That's how I fell from the top of twelve stories to the ground
For the reasons I have
The ones I know, the ones I know
For all I forgot
That is all I could do
That is how I want you
