

Long Since Forgotten

I am not over this, just waiting for another day to end.
Sometimes I want to break down.
Sometimes my car breaks down.

And all our words, a waste to say,
I wish I hadn't wasted this.
What more from me won't change a thing
If I'd say, If I'd say.

I'm so hungry for this life I missed.
I'm so hungry for this chance I blew.
I'm so hungry and I wish that I could make it go away.

Signing out loud you always agree
Perception is everything.
It's like we've never seen anything like this.
It happens every day.

And all our words, a waste to say,
I wish I hadn't wasted this.
What more from me won't change a thing
If I'd say, If I'd say.

I'm so hungry for this life I missed.
I'm so hungry for this chance I blew.
I'm so hungry and I wish that I could make it go away.
