Well take what you got, huh and get out while you can i'm on my way to somewhere and i know it's not the promise land well you might believe in a miracle well i just know something aint right and it's a long way to Vegas and you aint got no ride this time we tripped and we slipped and we fell and we feel yeah we somehow worked our way up out of this hill i got what i came for i'm not going back

not bringing it back you might believe in a miracle i just know something aint right

it's a long way to Vegas

yeah

yeah you might believe in a miracle well i just know it aint right

and you aint got no ride a long way to Vegas
you aint got no time
a long way to Vegas
you aint got no ride this time

no ride this time

this time
