With a bookworms devotion
And studious delight
I don't know my name
It's carmel tonight
A nostalgic wallow
The fool that i am
Not a dry eye in sight
Of lies gone by
Drawn back into the light
Memories forgotten
Of what might have been
If my brain operated
And fancies in full flight

Official secret, impermanent
Not even a peek, imperfect moment
I'm not letting you look, for what it meant
Not even a peek,impermanent

With a daily devotion
And studious delight
I don't know my name
It's becky tonight
A nostalgic wallow
The fool that i am
Not a dry eye in sight
Of lies gone by
Drawn back into the light
Memories forgotten
Of what might have been
If my brain operated
And fancies in full flight

Official secret, impermanent
Not even a peek, imperfect moment
I'm not letting you look, for what it meant
Not even a peek,impermanent
