Stand up next to you
Find myself a doubt
All you're gonna do
Is just wait, slip and die

Take it all
Though the sky may as well fall
Gonna take it all
Better fake it all
So the sky may as well fall
Give it to someone in need
Said take this problem from us

Find a point of view
Yes i will if i can
And it might if you are forced
Strapped up and couldnt choose

And you take it all
Though the sky may as well fall
Gonna fake em all
So gonna love one
Though the sky may as well fall
Gonna take it all
Said take this problem from us

Don't tell me that youve gone away
Thought i saw you only yesterday
Made me fear about the end of you
Never thought i had the chance with you
She told me she was a bleeder
And im not so i don't believe her

God lay his head on your shoulder
Said he loses

He took it all
Though the sky may as well fall
Gonna take it all
Better fake it all
So gonna love one

So the sky may as well fall
Gonna take it all
Give it to someone in need
Said take this problem from us
