September air comes cold
Feelings rush back and unfold
Speeding, crashing, burning through
Memories in my mind of you

Gone so fast too fast to catch
Years have gone and can't come back
So now I've closed my eyes
Closing seconds of our time

See the shore light up night sky
See the beach swing summers high
August shower after heat
Smell of rain on dry concrete

Feel the air turn cold around
See leaves fall blur the ground
Wet road slide slither by
Catch reflections petrol sky

Will you wait here?
Will you wait here?
It's coming around near
Will you wait here?

Will you wait here?
Will you wait here?
It's coming around near
Will you wait here?

When I feel I can't move on
And my will is not so strong
Moments of uncertainty
Behind your smile I want to be

Down the front where we used to talk
Down the streets where we used to walk
These places I will be
Will you meet me?

Will you wait here?
Will you wait here?

It's coming around near
Will you wait here?

Will you wait here?
Will you wait here?
It's coming around near
Will you wait here?

While I'm still, please do not shake me
While I'm still, please do not wake me
'Cause I'm in another place, I'm in another place
I'm in another place, I'm in another place

Will you wait here?
Will you wait here?
It's coming around near
Will you wait here?

Will you wait here?
Will you wait here?
It's coming around near
Will you wait here?
