Start of summer, fall '95,
A song I hear reminds me of past times,
Where are they now?
Moved in autumn of '99,
I thought I would be fine,
When you crashed through my life again.

Well there she goes, I'm breathtaken,
Pick me up, I have fallen,
There she goes and I'm just waiting here.

This nostalgia, feel so sad,
Best girl I never had,
End of something, but I feel fine.

Well there she goes, I'm breathtaken,
Pick me up, I have fallen,
There she goes and I'm just waiting here.

And I'll be happy in a while,
I'll look back and then I'll smile,
For these times I am, so far,
Love not known until its gone,
Never said we always knew,
Good things lie in store for you,
But I'm okay for my minds eye holds memories safe where they won't die.

Well there she goes, I'm breathtaken,
Pick me up, I have fallen,
There she goes and I'm just waiting here,
There she goes, I'm breathtaken,
Pick me up, I have fallen,
There she goes and I'm just waiting here,
I'm just waiting here,
I'm just waiting here,
I'm just waiting here,
I'm just waiting here.
