you're real
yeah your sordid
it's complicated but i like your style and you talk all the big talk you glide inside me i'm glad you came and now it suddenly seems so bright
where is the cold night i want to bury my face in it
it suddenly seems so bright it's complicated
it's sinister
you slip inside
it can't be heard
suddenly you crash
it's complicated
it's sinister
you slip inside
it can't be heard
suddenly you
you're cold
you're as hard as you think you are
but i don't believe that you're cruel and well maybe just a little yeah but i'm still glad you came
it's complicated
it's sinister
you slip inside
it can't be heard
suddenly you crash
yeah it's complicated

it's sinister
you slip inside
it can't be heard
suddenly you crash
and now I can't remember the clothes you wore the radio played out of tune and it feels like black leather just like you did the night before i came alive

and now it suddenly calls your name like a car crash that come with me and when your running away from it it suddenly seemed so bright
it's complicated
it's sinister
and it's complicated
it's sinister
crash
