Sometimes i get so excited
Sometimes i can feel you in the air
Sometimes i just lose my head and
Throw all of my caution to the wind

I've needed before and i need it now
I've needed before and i need it now
I've needed before and i need it now

Inside your blue world

All the rivers that you dammed
Are overflowing over land and sea
With pockets of waves that pull you under Overflowing over land and sea

With all the things you can't take back
All the things you can't take back
All the things you can't take back

Inside your blue world
