How can I give you all answers you want to know?
You're disappointed, oh.
And now you want to go.

"You always, You always."
Well, I know that you are.
"Oh, you go and you go and"
I don't know where to start.

The goal is not easy, no, when you don't know how far.
And nobody back at home tells you it'll be soo hard.

Oh, there's changes and changes.
And I can't let you go.
And my secrets are secrets that I wont let you know.

Well, I'm gonna let you know.
I'll let you know.
I'm gonna let you know.

Ooh... Aah...
