(Spoken)

I know I maybe not what you want
But, I could give you what you need
And, that's why I wrote you this song
So here it goes.

(Verse 1)

Where do I go from here
These feelings that I fear
Should I just make it clear
Can I even hide it
I know I'm really not his type
But I can't win him if I never try
My mind is saying no but my heart's already decided

Does he just see my face
When will they be a day
When he will look my way
With no compromises
I always gotta be myself cos
Even if I got no one else
Can you see me
Can you hear me
Look at my disguises

(Chorus)

No one could ever love you better
Let me show you what I can see
No one could ever know you better
Let me show you what's underneath

When you think about the future
Gonna be with some loser
All they have is some pretty and shiny teeth

No one could ever love you better, than me

(Verse 2)

The way you laugh out loud
As fake as it may sound

You were lost and now your found

Don't you roll your eyes then
Even if I'm not what you wanted
Gotta admit there's something about it
Can you see me
Can you hear me
Look at my disguises

(Chorus)
No one could ever love you better
Let me show you what I can see
No one will ever know you better
Let me show you what's underneath

When you think about the future
Gonna be with some loser
All they have is some pretty and shiny teeth

No one could ever love you better, than me

(Bridge)
Can't you see
Now my make-up is disappearing
I'm yours until you leave
Just take me as I am
Set me free

(Chorus)
No one could ever love you better (no one)
Let me show you what I can see
No one will ever know you better (no one, yeah)
Let me show you what's underneath

When you think about the future
Gonna be with some loser
All they have is some pretty and shiny teeth

No one could ever love you better, than me
