Jealous man cannot work
Hold a job too long
Jealous man cannot work
Can't leave his woman home alone

He can do no [Incomprehensible]
'Cause that fool might lose his mind

He knocks on his front door
One round to the back
Try to see she got another
Bringing upon his slack

Like a jealous man
Can't leave his woman too long
Every chance he gets
Checking on that woman at home

Check down by his window
Check down by his back door
Trying to see if he got some track
I find in the store

That's a jealous man
Can't trust his woman too long
Every chance he gets
He's checking on that woman at home

He don't trust her sister
He don't trust her brother
Think that they're delivering
A message from another

That's a jealous man
Can't trust his woman too long
Every chance he gets
Checking on his woman at home

Every chance he gets
He's checking on that woman at home
Every chance he gets
He's checking on that woman at home
