We're only living on a landslide,
We're only facing absolution,
We're only praying for our own lives
When we are facing execution.

Why are wasting all these hours, dear?
You know you really don't care where I'm from
And we're not here for all the atmosphere...
We're only here, we're only here.

I made you, I'll break you,
I'll follow you and ruin your immaculate ending slowly.

We're only scarring on the inside,
We're only bleeding when we're speaking,
We're only wanting to be denied,
Anticipating, anticipating...

Why are we waiting 'round so hopeless here?
You know you really don't care what I want.
And I can't help you with your hopes and fears,
I'm only here, I'm only here...

I made you, I'll break you,
I'll follow you and ruin your immaculate ending-

Whenever you make it, stay absolutely true to hatred
Whenever you crave it, turn everything impure to beautiful

I made you, I'll break you,
I'll follow you and ruin your immaculate ending slowly...
