"Blood Lush"

Pure exhilaration as the lights go down
Hexed by a love fixation on a grim rebound
The maker wakes up always drowning the
Ecstasy comes first exposure to the jagged
Craving the overbearing thirst

Blood, blood, blood lush

Fearless fair warning as the anxious cry
Timeless bold obsession on a thin supply

The maker wakes up always frowning the
Ecstasy comes first exposure to the jagged
Craving the overbearing thirst

All the manic raise their glasses high
While the rain of blood falls from the sky
Since the therapy just caused a curse
Who'll survive and who will arrive first
