"Tolerate"

Hey there killer with your eyes sewn up
And your nose turned up to the mirror
You know it's forbidden
But the life you're dealing
Is a two dollar plague on the living

Hey life sucker
Is that all you're bringing
Nothing real, nothing new, nothing shallow
In you're honor they'll be no one farther
From your blitzkrieg of bullshit to follow

Let's crash the world
And let's shatter all of the gates
Let's conjure all the insanity
That we can tolerate

Hey there harlot
With your humped back starlet
Did your face crack
And fall through the system
You're all black and blue
But the pain's haunting you
It's the bloodline that you've left to sever
