A black cat's full of trouble and I know he has nine lives.
A black cat's full of trouble and I know he has nine lives.
But mama 's troubled now because a black cat never dies.

When I woke up this morning, and a black cat 's hangin'
'round my door.
When I woke up this morning, and a black cat 's hangin'
'round my door.
He's the cause of my mense, not comin' back to me anymore.

Now if you want to keep your man, get a dog to watch
night and day.
Now if you want to keep your man, get a dog to watch
night and day.
That's the only thing to do, to keep that mean black cat away.

Some women like a yellow, but I don't want no man to cry.
Some women like a yellow, but I don't want no man to
cry.
I hope that mistreatin' black cat, will stay 'way from my house tonight.
