Did you ever love a woman, love her with your whole heart an' mind?
Man, did you ever love a woman, an' love her with your whole heart an' mind?
An' when she finds it out, mmm, she can treat you so unkind.

When a woman got a good man, she don't know how to treat him right.
Yes, when a woman 's got a good man, she don't know how to treat him right.
Well, women you can't keep a good man, by stayin' in the streets both day an' night.

When a woman says, "Daddy I love you, and I'll never let you go."
When a woman says, "Daddy I love you, and I'll never let you go."
She's only playin' you for a secondhand fool, or she 's got your best friend that live next door.

Rock it! Rock it! Rock it! [shouted words - Lonnie Johnson]

Man, you can't please some women, no matter how hard you try.
Man, you can't, just can't, just cant please a woman, no matter how hard you try.
She'll tell you a lie when you see her, and she'll be lyin' till the day she dies.
