I've done just as you said, dear
I'll give you a smile for a tear
I'd even give you the moon above
Hoping that you may come to love
And now I'd give you the sun that shines

Now I've made you happy
And why do you leave me cryin' ?
Although it is true, my heart belongs to you
But bye bye, sweet Mary Lou

My lonesome days beginning tomorrow
And my poor heart will be left full of sorrow
Please come back, dear, every day seems like a year
I love you but yet you don't care

Although you've got my heart your way
I'll make you learn to love someday
Come back, Mary, you know I love you true
May God bless you, sweet Mary Lou
