Baby, there's some changes made, I've got to get rid of you.

Yes, there's some changes made, I've got to get rid of you.

'Cause the double life you leading, is goin' to break my heart in two.

Baby, you can't have me, and chase every man in town.
Baby, you can't have me, and chase every man in town.
You will either get me in trouble, or you will end up in six feet of ground.

Baby, I hate to let you go, but there's nothing that I can do.

Yes, I hate to let you go, baby, there's nothin' I can do.
You have to find yourself another man, to let you do all the things you want to do.

'Cause I want a woman to love, I can tell the whole round world she 's mine.

I want a woman I can love, and tell the whole round world she 's mine.

But when I'm with you baby, you just with me on borrowed time.
