I've proved that I love you, in everything 'at a good man
could do.

I've proved that I love you, in everything 'at a good man
could do.

You just laughed in my face, is that all I mean to you?

Darlin', I know you don't love me, there's nothing I can do.

Yes, darlin', I know you don't love me, there's nothing I can do.

My love is just wasted, is that all I mean to you?

I taken a chance and fell in love with you, there's no
one but myself to blame.

Yes, I took a chance and fell in love with you, there's no
one but myself to blame.

I'm just another fool that fell in love with you, and playin' a losing game.
