Only those in love, is the ones can understand.
Only those in love, is the ones can understand.
And those who play with love, they're never in demand.

Love is something great, it's not to be kicked around.
Love is something great, it's not to be kicked around.
And once you love please don't hurt it, 'cause it's so great to have around.

With you in my arms baby, nothin' could ever go wrong.
With you in my arms baby, nothin' could ever go wrong.
And with you in my arms baby, I'm never left alone.

I give you my heart and soul, and that was all of me.
Well I give you my heart and soul, baby that was all of me.
Your sweet kindness baby, have made me everything that a man wants to be.
