Me and my crazy self, and a woman make a fool out of me.

Me and my crazy self, and a woman make a fool out of me.

Now she walked out and left me, I'm lonesome as a fool can be.

Me and my lyin' self, said I wouldn't love no more.

Me and my lyin' self, said I wouldn't love no more.

Now another woman took my heart, walked out and slammed the door.

Me and my helpless self, guess there's nothing I can do.

Me and my helpless self, guess there's nothing I can do.

But set ch'ere worryin', cryin' my heart out for you.
