Trouble, trouble, I wonder will it ever end?
Trouble, trouble, I wonder will it ever end?
My burden is so heavy, I feel like I ain't got a friend.

When I had plenty money, I had friends all over town.
When I had plenty money, I had friends all over town.
Just as soon as I had bad luck, they all stopped comin'
'round.

People think they got troubles, but I swear they really
don't know.
People think they got troubles, but I swear they really
don't know.
But, when you lose your mother and dad, it's trouble everywhere you go.
