Oh doctor, doctor, tell me the time of day.
Oh doctor, tell me the time of day.
All I wants is a good drink of whiskey, to drive my blues away.

Some people say, that it's women, wine, and song.
Some people say, that it's women, wine, and song.
But it's the blues and whiskey, that lead another good man wrong.

People when you get worried, you have to drink
sometime.
People when you feel worried, you have to drink
sometime.
When this blues, love, and whiskey, gets drunk with your mind.
